CONFERENCE CALLING ACCOUNT APPLICATION

Terms and Conditions

The purpose of FIRETAP™ Communications, under this agreement, is to provide conference call services to clients. This will include the process of reserving the call, providing inbound access nationally and internationally, outbound access nationally and internationally, and connecting participants to prearranged conference calls.

The client will gain inbound access to the system by using the public telephone network. The client will determine the level of security necessary of a conference call and prearrange this security prior to the call with the FIRETAP conference center. FIRETAP will undertake no extra security precautions unless the client has so requested.

Use of call taping features may subject the client to state or federal laws or regulations regarding the notification of participants to the use of these features. Client assumes the responsibility for any required notification to conference call participants.

Charges will be billed based on the current agreed rates as amended from time to time. The client agrees to pay all charges when billed. Charges not paid within 30 days of the date of billing may be assessed a 1.5% per month finance charge and may result in termination of service. Credit card charges will be paid and guaranteed as stated in the applications for service agreement.

The parties recognize the importance of the confidentiality of information delivered by the system and agree to take reasonable steps to limit access to the system by carefully following appropriate security procedures unless otherwise requested. On a routine basis, FIRETAP employees monitor conferences for quality. All FIRETAP employees are subject to secrecy and confidentiality agreements. Client agrees not to resell the service to a third party unless authorized in writing by FIRETAP Communications.

Warranty and Disclaimer: FIRETAP shall use their best effort to ensure that the system is reliable and available to the client at all times provided. However, FIRETAP does not make any representations, warranties or covenants, either expressed or implied including the implied warranty of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

FIRETAP shall not be liable for incidents, special or consequential damages, personal injury, commercial loss, arising in any manner out of the performance or nonperformance of all services provided.

Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the state of Utah. These terms may be amended by FIRETAP Communications at any time.
